

Eden Sky was a very bright six-year-old boy who asked so many questions that his parents often thought that maybe they should have named him Eden Sky Wonders Why instead of just Eden Sky. You know the kind of kid . . . the kind that wants to know everything about everything. When the school bus brought Eden Sky home on this particular Monday, he was so excited to talk to his dad that he flew through the front door and headed straight for his bedroom. He was pretty sure heâ€™d find him in there tidying up. The minute he plopped his backpack down on the bed, he began asking him the questions heâ€™d been wondering about since recess.
