

Truffaut or Tarantino? Leone or Lynch? Fellini or Ford? Why? Which films are the greatest of all time? The answer is definitely open to dispute. It depends on your personal taste. Do you prefer timeless classics or spectacular blockbusters, sophisticated art house films or revolutionary iconoclasm, political message movies or tearjerkers, chary chamber plays or colorful costume dramas? An objective glance at movie history – what could that look like? Maybe like this ebook. It presents a list to end all lists. By analyzing every important ranking from the last ten years, Frank Schnelle and Andreas Thiemann have compiled their own meta-ranking which accomplishes the feat of reconciling all factions. Each title is introduced with a short and concise text describing the film's unique qualities and its historic value. In addition, there is a ranking of the 100 best directors and, as ebook bonus material, the complete ranking with the 1,088 titles from all of the analyzed lists. The 100 Greatest Movies of All Time offers film buffs an exciting, entertaining and insightful read. Newcomers will find a perfect starting point for a journey through movie history, while, for the advanced fanatic, the meta-list provides the ideal basis for passionate discussions. (Der Spiegel)
