

A chilling tale of greed and corruption in a health care industry increasingly dominated by large corporations. Undetected, a highly profitable new drug may be losing its effectiveness. Three friends working in a Southwest Florida hospital stumble across information that confirms their suspicion. The deeper they dig, the more they discover. And the more of a threat they become. With billions of dollars at stake, they are caught up in a dangerous game. They are up against powerful adversaries with unimaginable resources. When they unearth information pointing to a potential cover-up, they trigger a reaction that has deadly consequences. Time is running out as they race to expose the truth. - 2013 Royal Palm Literary Awards third place for published thriller/suspense.
