

In Working with Guides and Angels, Ruth White highlights the areas in which our guiding angels can help us. She says that we can call on our guides and angels to help us to widen our viewpoints, and experience the joy, laughter and celebration that surrounds us. She explains that guides and angels are beings of light who are eager to connect with us and support all of us on our individual journeys. In this accessible and practical book Ruth explains the purpose of guides and angels in our lives, how we can learn to communicate with them and what to expect. She also includes simple exercises to help us to make contact. Throughout, Ruth draws on her personal experience with angels and provides information on her well-known discarnate guide, Gildas.
